Broken Art Tattoo Founder JEREMY SWAN to BREAK WORLD RECORD

November 13th 2009 – LOS ANGELES – Jeremy Swan, tattoo artist and shop owner, will attempt to break the WORLD RECORD for most tattoo's given in a 24 hour period. On November 13th at MIDNIGHT Jeremy will begin his quest for the record under the watchful eye of THE GUINNESS BOOK OF WORLD RECORDS. The event will take place at Broken Art Tattoo (2400 Hyperion Blvd Unit C Los Angeles CA 90027) Jeremy needs to place over 802 tattoos on eager customers in order to break the current record held by Hollis Cantrell of Arizona.

The event will begin at 11PM on November 12th and will feature live music from local artists, beverages, and prize giveaways. The event will close at 12:00 AM on November 14th. It is open to the public and sign ups to be one of Jeremy's canvases can be found at <http://www.brokenarttattoo.com> or by emailing info@brokenarttattoo.com.

Tattooing since 1995, Jeremy got his start at Gold Coast Tattoo in Marina, California where he worked for seven years. In 2002 he opened his own shop, Broken Art Tattoo in Salinas California. In 2004 Jeremy and his family relocated to Los Angeles to re-open Broken Art Tattoo in Silverlake. Part art studio, part lounge, Broken Art has become a staple of Los Angeles tattoo culture. Built on word of mouth and an enticing atmosphere Broken Art Tattoo offers custom tattoos and welcomes walkups 7 days a week.
